

HOME HAPPENINGS

—Tis Lent.

—Sap's running, but not all of it comes from trees.

—Skunks are said to be killing quite a number of chickens in the village.

—There are a few packages of government seeds at the Dispatch office for those who desire them.

—County Surveyor D. S. Smith has the thanks of the Dispatch for a fine road map of Mahoning county.

—Lowellville Juniors will play the Canfield Junior basketball team in the American auditorium next Monday night.

—Many people enjoyed the excellent noodle supper served last Saturday evening by the ladies of the M. E. Church.

—Last Friday evening Mrs. R. D. Fowler pleasantly entertained a company of girl friends at her home on West Main street.

—The Youngtown Salvation Army wagon will be in Canfield next Monday to get clothing, etc., which citizens are to donate.

—The Builders' Aid society of the M. E. Church met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. R. H. Rhodes, and spent the afternoon sewing.

—J. B. Cox has purchased the interest of his brother, L. M. Cox, in the concrete plant near the Erie station and will continue the manufacture of concrete blocks, posts, etc.

—A. M. Moyer says he has perfected a perpetual motion machine upon which he has been at work for years and expects to soon give a public demonstration of the wonderful mechanism.

—There is every indication that the county normal school which will open in Canfield within a few months will be largely attended. Many inquiries regarding the school have already been made.

—Z. F. Johnston, who recently sold his farm north of the village to R. A. Burk, of Berlin, has purchased for $4,700 William Culp's fine 14-acre property near Columbiana and will take possession March 1.

—A transaction between Sellig Katz of Youngtown and Grover Foshacht of Canfield, in which a horse agreed, was brought to the attention of Mayor Jones Tuesday evening and the matter was amicably adjusted Wednesday.

—A gang of tramps around town last Saturday night attempted to gain entrance to several residences during the absence of occupants early in the evening. When discovered at one house the tourists hurriedly left the village.

—Mrs. Mary Calvin of Youngtown, formerly of Canfield, who has been suffering from injuries sustained in a street car accident several weeks ago and erysipelas, is in a critical condition at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. C. Ewing.

—There is a sort of epidemic which seems persistently determined to cover this territory, and is affecting many. It is popularly termed the grip by many, but is not a very severe affliction. It lasts from a few days to a week or two and follows quickly from one to another in the family, etc.

—Quite a number of Canfield Odd Fellows were in Canton Wednesday night to witness the initiation of 100 candidates for the first degree. The work was put on by the Imperial Degree team of Washington Court House and was witnessed by several hundred Odd Fellows from the northeastern part of the state.

—The Canfield Volunteer Fire Department has purchased the building on East Main street which was once the home of the Dispatch to house the fire-fighting equipment and provide firemen's quarters. Changes and improvements are now being made on the structure which is well adapted to the purposes intended.

—A largely attended meeting of citizens was held in town hall Monday night when the location for the fire-fighting equipment was discussed. After the close of the meeting a subscription paper was circulated and quite a sum was subscribed to assist the fire department in paying for the building purchased to house the equipment. The fund has since been considerably increased and is still growing.

—The state agricultural commission has advised the county commissioners that they will visit this county as soon as the weather settles in the spring and act with them in selecting an experiment farm. The county commissioners have said that nothing definite would be done about selecting a farm in April or May. It is understood that a considerable number of farms have been offered for the purpose desired.

—The local postmaster has received official notice that the arrangement for the two-cent letter rate between the United States and Germany applies only to such letters as are now dispatched from either country to the other by direct boat. As there is now no direct service to Germany, notice is given that, pending the resumption of such direct service, letters mailed in this country for Germany must be prepaid at the rate of five cents for each ounce or fraction thereof, and three cents for each additional ounce or fraction thereof. Letters not full prepaid at the rate indicated will be allowed to go forward to destination, but will be subject to a charge on delivery equal to double the amount of the deficient postage.

—Prof. H. E. Ewings of the Agricultural Extension Department, Ohio State University, will give an illustrated lecture in College Chapel Monday evening, Feb. 22, at 8 o'clock, eastern. The lecture will be on some phase of agriculture and agricultural extension in the schools of Ohio. Sufficient lantern slides will be used to make a pleasant evening's entertainment, but the lecture will be a practical one to the community. Tuesday morning Mr. Ewings will give agricultural talks to the agriculture classes of the Normal and Union schools. These talks will also be given in college chapel and the citizens of the village and township will be welcome. No admission will be charged to either the evening or day meetings. Tuesday afternoon and evening late meetings will be held in Boardman.

—Twenty-five little girls were enjoyably entertained Wednesday evening by Lena and Lina Metzler, twin sisters, the occasion being their 10th birthday. They received many remembrances.

—A horse belonging to Charles Sassenbacher, used in hauling a "big wagon," was stricken with paralysis one evening last week near the residence of I. Callahan. The animal was taken to Mr. Callahan's barn and treated by Dr. Detchon. It is recovering.

—The Canfield association basketball team defeated the Petersburg first team and the Canfield Juniors defeated the Petersburg Juniors in the American auditorium last Friday night. The normal girls defeated the union girls. Saturday night at the same place the Youngtown Euclids defeated the Canfield Juniors.

—A meeting of the Board of Trade was held Tuesday evening when several suggestions were acted upon. It is planned to have an organized cleanup week in the village within a few weeks, details of which will be announced a little later. A test of clay in this section for paving and other brick was arranged for. The support of the Board will be given in the matter of improving road conditions.
